we were soldiers video questions answer key: The Prince and the King Dr. Loris O. Gillin, 2016-05-10 What kind of people and society have we become? With the twenty-first century bearing witness to tremendous changemuch of which has been prompted by severe internal and global challenges to both the economy and the way we share informationthere is a need for a social and psychological counterbalance to place this change in perspective and stem the tide of disillusionment and fear. The Prince and the King presents a birds-eye view of the social forces and monumental changes that have delivered us into this twenty-first centuryforces which drive us forward and mould us into the future. Beginning with a behind-the-scenes look at the Second World War and what happened during the post-war years of development, it also explores the sociocultural changes of the sixties and seventies and the issues of identity that faced those individuals during the eighties. As these trends began to spread during the nineties, the stage was set for some of the dramatic changes that now pose a challenge to individuals, families, and society today. By focusing on the social development of individuals and communities, we can be in a position to see how we have actually adjusted to this change. The important task at hand, however, is to pause amidst this changing landscape and perhaps look at our Christian faith in order to consider if this is the psychological and spiritual place that individuals and societies should choose as their future.

we were soldiers video questions answer key: Touching and Being Touched Gabriele Brandstetter, Gerko Egert, Sabine Zubarik, 2013-10-29 Touch is a fundamental element of dance. The (time) forms and contact zones of touch are means of expression both of self-reflexivity and the interaction of the dancers. Liberties and limits, creative possibilities and taboos of touch convey insights into the 'aisthesis' of the different forms of dance: into their dynamics and communicative structure, as well as into the production and regulation of affects. Touching and Being Touched assembles seventeen interdisciplinary papers focusing on the question of how forms and practices of touch are connected with the evocation of feelings. Are these feelings evoked in different ways in tango, Contact improvisation, European and Japanese contemporary dance? The contributors to this volume (dance, literature, and film scholars as well as philosophers and neuroscientists) provide in-depth discussions of the modes of transfer between touch and being touched. Drawing on the assumptions of various theories of body, emotion, and senses, how can we interpret the processes of tactile touch and of being touched emotionally? Is there a specific spectrum of emotions activated during these processes (within both the spectator and the dancer)? How can the relationship of movement, touch, and emotion be analyzed in relation to kinesthesia and empathy?
