As he stared at the headlines, a shock wave of anger flowed through his body. It read: "WESTERN MONTANA TO JOIN THE SOUTH ALABAMA CONFERENCE." In a war of good versus evil (i.e., spiritual warfare), meet the main characters in this fast-paced saga: Bo Jensen: fantastic running back for the Western Montana College Bears with a promising future in the NFL. Changes in NCAA regulations allowed him to prosper from the sale of a variety of items including ladies thongs. Milton (Milty) Douglas, Esq.: senior partner at The Douglas Law Firm and former Bears football star. His practice was limited to defending "student-athletes" and fraternity/sorority members in their encounters with the law. Almost all the students on campus were familiar with the expression: "If you're guilty, call Milty." Bob ("Rooster") Jones: ill-mannered, corrupt, and abrasive billionaire; and financial supporter of Bears football and former player. Queen Esther: Sigma Phi Beta sorority president, Madam of the sorority's prostitution ring, and occasional student at WMC after her daily beauty treatments. Jimbo ("The Bear") Collins: unscrupulous head football coach for the Bears. Mark and Hannah Anderson: pastors at Calvary Chapel, Missoula. They served as counter-weights to an immoral culture that was quickly sliding Missoula and the country into the sewer. Jill Hansen: 20 year-old sophomore at WMC. Raised in a small farming community of Darby, Montana, she was the woman nearly every parent hoped their son would someday marry.
