Observe Their Behavior

Each dragon species has unique habits and preferences. For example, Night Furies like Toothless are highly intelligent and require patience and trust-building, while a Gronckle may be more food-motivated and affectionate. Observing these behaviors helps trainers adapt their methods.

Use Positive Reinforcement

Much like training real animals, dragons respond well to positive reinforcement. Rewarding dragons with treats, praise, or playtime encourages good behavior and strengthens the bond between rider and dragon.

Respect Their Nature

Some dragons, such as the Whispering Death or Bewilderbeast, are naturally more aggressive or territorial. Trainers must respect these traits and avoid forcing interactions. Understanding and empathy go a long way in fostering cooperation.

Practice Patience and Consistency

Training a dragon is not a quick process. Regular practice, consistent commands, and patience are key. This is evident in Hiccup's journey with Toothless, where gradual trust leads to incredible teamwork.
