holy spirit andres bisonni ministries: Initiation Of The Holy Spirit Apostle Joshua Selman, 2020-12-04 when God calls a man, the anointing is not the only thing that is given, you have to understand this, every ministry has many standard spiritual features. When God calls a man, there is the anointing that is upon that man by reason of his knowledge and his personal press of God, also there is an anointing on the office that that man occupies spiritually, in addition, there is an anointing on that man by reason of discerning and being part of the current move of God, they are not the same and then there is the anointing that comes by reason of the dimension that God wants to take the people into based on the truth that is revealed and then at certain level depending on the call and the office. There are covenants, that means a vow that God made with that man that as far as it relates to his destiny assignment on earth, I have bound myself to do certain things that have nothing to do with even the person and then there are angelic manifestation, there are angels that work with believers, there are angelic presence, as a believer, he says he shall put his charge over you. There are angelic presence that works with believers, but there are angels that don't follow a man, they follow anointing, they don't need to know who that individual is, it's an office just like they give you an office with cars, there are P.A, they don't have to know you, it's part of the equipping of the kingdom, you see that it's very important. And so, there are angelic presence that signifies revelation, it's not only the anointing that gives revelation, the revelation of Jesus Christ which he gave unto John his servant. (Matthew 11:1-14) – 399 Part Two – Appendix 1. Questions & Answers – 419 In Christianity today, the most frequently discussed issues are salvation from sin and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. However, few people have precise knowledge of these two ideas, despite the fact that they are the two most important concepts in Christianity. What is worse, they cannot find any biblical writing that clearly teaches us about the issues mentioned above. There have been lots of Christian authors glorifying the gifts of the Holy Spirit or describing the Spirit-filled lives. But any of them doesn't dare to deal with the fundamental question, How can a believer surely receive the Holy Spirit? Why? Surprising truth is that they couldn't write about it in full-scale because they didn't have exact knowledge of it. As Prophet Hosea cried out, My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge, nowadays, not a few Christians are drawn into religious fanaticism, hoping to receive the Holy Spirit. They believe that they will receive the Holy Spirit by reaching a state of frenzy and hysteria. But it is no exaggeration to say that their so-called faith reduces Christianity to mere shallow Shamanism, and that such fanaticism derives from Satan. The author Rev. Paul C. Jong dares to proclaim the truth. He deals the essential subjects in full-scale, which most spiritual writers have evaded for a long time. He first defines the meaning of being born again and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and explains the inevitable relationship between the two pivotal concepts. Then he runs the whole gamut of description concerning the Holy Spirit, from how to discern the spirits to the way to Spirit-filled lives. DIXON. We are God's fellow-workers is a good motto for evangelical Christendom. Believers, saints, heirs, soldiers, we are comparatively worthless unless we are workers. Faith without works is dead. Before men we are justified by works, and they will accept no substitute. While a French dramatist was reading his latest production to a circle of critics, one of them fell asleep. The dramatist indignantly asked, How can you criticize my drama while asleep? I submit, said the critic, rubbing his eyes, that sleep is a criticism. The fact that Christians are sleepily inactive is a criticism which the world accepts against Christianity. To the casual observer the difference between sleep and death may not be apparent. An undertaker in New York mistook a sleeping sister for a corpse. His preliminary preparations awoke her, and startled her almost into hysterics. The thought that she had been taken for dead with a view to burial was indeed startling, yet it was a natural mistake for the undertaker to make; and it is natural that the world should regard Christians asleep as dead. A corpse suggests a scalpel or a cemetery, and we, unless active for God, may expect to be cut up by the scalpel of criticism, or buried beneath indifference and scorn. We are workers together. Herein is the real unity which exists to-day. Christians will never unite upon a creed, but they can unite around the Christ. Saved sinners will gladly join hands in seeking to save sinners. Whatever be our differences of church administration or doctrine, if we are Christians at all we can point to Calvary, and say in concert, Behold the Lamb of God. We are workers together with God. It is important, then, that we learn what God is doing....

THE PRESENCE AND PRESIDENCY OF THE SPIRIT The word presence implies personality, as we more correctly use it. And the fifth chapter of the Acts of the Holy Ghost contains an unmistakable unveiling of the fact that he is a Person, present and presiding in the church. When Ananias and Sapphira conspired in a sin of sacrilege, keeping back in part what, being already given unto God, was to be ranked among devoted things, they committed Joshua vn. a1 a sin similar to that of Achan, and a6' visited with like penalties. The noticeable feature, however, is not this correspondence, so much as the indirect but unquestionable witness to the individuality, personality, presence, and presidency of the Spirit. Peter said to Ananias, Why hath Satan filled thine heart to Lie To The Holy Ghost? And afterward to Sapphira, How is it that ye have agreed together to TEMPT THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD? Let us mark, also, how he added to his rebuke to Ananias, Thou hast not lied unto men, but UNTO GOD. Thus, in one transaction, so briefly recorded, we are vividly impressed with three facts, all the more impressive because assumed to be facts, and needing no argument or even direct assertion: 1. The Spirit is a person, with personal attributes. 2. The Spirit is God, not only having divinity, but deity. 3. The Spirit is the presiding presence in the church. If the Holy Spirit were, as some would have us believe, only a thin and shadowy effluence proceeding from God, as the breath exhales from one's body, such language as is here used would be absurdly inappropriate. It is plain that a man cannot lie to an influence or effluence, or tempt and defraud anything less than a person. Moreover, it is distinctly affirmed that, in thus lying unto the...
